

Liyana

FREE
Film showing
Sat. Feb. 2
3:00

Snacks provided after show
625 Randolph St.

Liyana features five orphaned children from Swaziland who create a fairy-tale drawn from their darkest memories and their brightest dreams. Their story will touch and inspire all of us who are concerned about the world's children being traumatized by current events.

Parental guidance suggested: Liyana is recommended for ages 10 through adult. Film length: 77 min. This screening is a secular event held at the Napa Methodist Church.

Snacks provided after the show, along with time for optional (non-directed) conversation about the film.

Questions: (707) 253-1411 or 257-7134.

"Part documentary, part animation, pure magic."

--Shelly Seid, *Sunday Times

"Liyana weaves a stunning folk tale from tragedy."

--Nonfics.com

"Shows the optimism and self-awareness that can come from creativity."

--The New York Times

"As tough as the subject matter may get at times, the film is guaranteed to be an uplifting one for viewers of all ages."

--Roger Ebert